Regarding the Health of your Pet while Boarding:

If a medical problem is discovered, an agent of Grand Parkway Animal Hospital shall make a reasonable effort to reach one of the listed contacts to discuss the problem and determine the course of action to be taken. If the owner or contact person cannot be reached, the attending veterinarian has permission to take the necessary steps to diagnose and treat in accordance with current medical standards. In case of an emergency, measures to preserve and stabilize functions shall be taken immediately. Boarding older debilitated pets is a health risk and should only be done as a last resort.

The owner or responsible agent, by signing this release, represents that he or she is the owner or agent of the above animal(s) and does guarantee that he or she has the authority to sign this release and is personally liable for all expenses for lodging, veterinary services, and any other expenses incurred while the animal is boarded.
